Dear Parents,

Thank you to Mr. Asman, Mr. Huntzinger, Mrs. May, Mrs. Susan Carter, the teachers and aides, and all the parents who worked diligently to create and direct a memorable Christmas program. Of course, a standing ovation goes to all the student performers PreK-8 grade that met the challenge of learning their parts and performed with great determination and gusto. A job well done!

Please read the following:

- The third quarter of school begins January 4. The semester honor roll assembly for grades 5-8 will take place Friday, January 8, 2010 at 8:30am in the school gym. Report cards go home Thursday, January 7.
- The next general auction meeting for Mardi Gras will be January 7 at 7:00pm in the school library. It is time to make a volunteer commitment and support his crucial fundraising event. Interest and commitment have been inconsistent so far.

*The following committees still need a chair or more volunteers:

Program advertising chair & committee
Live auction
Program construction (write ups)
Silent Auction set up
Set up
Clean up

If you are able to make a commitment, please email Aly Kelly at kelly1943@msn.com /call 801-520-7160 or Kayla Smith at kaylasmith@cosgriff.org /801-486-3197.

Auction Support: Please keep the following on your Christmas list and/or on your after Christmas shopping sale list.

- 1) Class basket donations click here
- 2) Silent and live auction items
- 3) An extra bottle of wine for the wine basket (adults only drop wine off at the school office)
- 4) Sell one ad for the Mardi Gras program click here

The auction committee needs to locate a roulette wheel. If you have any contacts or information call Mrs. Hunt at 801-486-6933.

- The volunteer/student tardy computer check in/out procedure has been set up in the school office. Please click here to read about the purpose and procedure of this program.
- Our first Cosgriff Open House is Sunday, January 10 at 12:00-2:00pm. A few parents and 8th grade volunteers are needed for that day. Please call or email Mrs. Hunt if you can help at bhunt@cosgriff.org or 801-486-6933.

- Thank you to Robin Harmston and Emily Bleyl for putting together a beautiful and functional cookbook.

Thank you to all parents and friends of Cosgriff for your continued support of the faculty, staff and programs of the school. May your holiday be relaxing and joyful-with sincere appreciation!
