

March 19, 2009

Dear Parents,

Thank you to parents and students who attended conferences this week. These in-person conversations with students, parents and teachers help strengthen commitments between home and school. In addition, students were encouraged to renew personal and academic goals for the remainder of the year. Along with that, thank you to HSA again for providing a delicious dinner for the faculty as they worked through the evening.

Please read the following:

Please return the parent survey right away. Your input is very important to the ongoing improvement of the school. Click here to download a copy of the survey.

Volunteers are needed to serve on committees for the Art Auction, October 10, 2009, and Mardi Gras, February 6, 2010. Call Mrs. Hunt at 486-6933 or Kayla Smith at 486-3197 if you will consider giving your time and talents to raise money for the school.

The take home library is working well, volunteers are always needed. Call Raquel Austin at 486-3197 or email austin@cosgriff.org.

Third grade students have Art on Monday afternoons from 2:10-3:00pm. Mrs. Oswald really needs a few extra parents to assist her. Call the office if you are available at 486-3197.

The fourth grade play performances have been changed due to a Mass and funeral. Please note the new days and times.

A special thank you to Tiffany Cavanaugh for allowing us to use her truck for the Cosgriff float in the St. Patrick's Day Parade. Also, thank you to Mr. Asman and the school band, and the many parents and students who decorated the float and walked in the parade.

Family Math and Science Night will be March 31st. K-5 will be from 7:00-8:15pm; middle school will be from 7:00-8:30pm. Parents are encouraged to visit several classrooms during the evening.

Used uniforms will be sold during Parent/Teacher conferences and also Friday, March 20th before school. Also, please check the lost and found table and take lost items home.

Mardi Gras Update: The Wendover "Fun Bus" trip will be departing at 9:00am on Saturday, March 28, and will return at 7:00pm. Drinks will be provided. Please call Kori Hazel with any questions at 293-1135.

Hot lunch forms for April hot lunch is due Friday, March 20. We apologize for the error in scheduling a lunch on the March calendar for the 19th. If you ordered and paid for a lunch that day, please deduct a lunch from your April form.

Thank you for all you do for your children and for Cosgriff.

Sincerely,

Betsy Hunt

Principal
